

Chapter VIII

RECOMMENDATION FOR FUTURE WORK

For future work in controlling the pollution of sugar factory liquid waste in Thailand, the following studies are recommended.

1. comparative study of waste control of factory wash water in aerobic and anaerobic condition.
2. Relationship between the waste concentration and power consumption for modification oxidation pond treatment.
3. Condenser water of the sugar factory are the main problem to contaminate stream. Study should be made how to solve and control this problem.